Fandall appointed by the Board of Education of Virginia a trustee for the 1st ward to fil the unexpired term of George Washington, etq , tock and subscribed the oath of office before the Superintendent of Schools and took their soats as members of the Board. The mientes of the last meeting were read and approved Mr. Marbury, from Committee on Finance and Accounts, reported as correct the following bills which were ordered to be paid, viz: Gizette Job Office, printing blanks, $16; Peake & Nalls, glass and hard ware, $9.43; Thomas Hoy, repairs to stoves, sireets reported that as the committee had insisted on semething near the price paid for it by the Board, and the gentleman who wished to purchase had offered only about half, no ac ino

Mr. Marbury then moved that it be sold at not less than $1,000. Mr. Snowden said that a number of citiz ms had urged upon him the importance of selling it as it now paid no revenue to the city and the purchaser would build a handsome house on it and three good houses on adjourning lots. He moved to amend so that it be sold for not less than $800, on condition that the promised improvements be made, which motion was lost:

The chair appointed Mr. Fendall a member of the Committee on Schoolbouses and furniture and of that on Lee and Peabody Schools, vice Mr. Washington resigned.
The Superintendent reported that he had granted the use of Peabody Hall on Friday evenings, to the literary society of Washington School, presuming that the Board would desire to er courage such a society as much as possible Also that a new division is required in Snow-den School, in consequence of the over-crowd ing at present, and of the number of colored boys who wished to enter, but could not be re-caived for want of room; whereupon the open-ing of a new division was authorized and the election of a teacher appointed for the next meeting. After he retired the Superintendent of Schools, by request, stated the law under which the action was taken and the supposed necessity for it, and it was or dered that the clerk notify Mr. Pitts and the teacher that the Board will hear and determine the case at its next meeting and invite them to TEMPERANCE NOTES .- The late visits of Hon. Samuel Capper bave quite intensified the temperates feeling in this community. The subjects of his three addresses were "Last or "It is none of your business," and Beware of the dog." The high position and character of this gentleman, his fine abilities as a speaker, his great fund of illustration, bis boldness in attacking liquor selling and liquor dricking and his terrible carnestness make him a powerful champion of the reform he advo catce. His audiences here were large and enthusiastic. During the last two weeks the Good Templars of this city have received a new impetus and have added a large number to their membership.

The monthly meeting of the Weman's Christian Temperance Union was held on Wednesday afternoon at the Reform Clab rooms. Mrs. Linville delivered the address which wes an earnest womanly appeal in behalf of gospel temperance work. She spoke with great feeling of the death of Mr. Jas. Cuncingham who had spoken here a number of times for the Reform Club, but who died a few weeks ago from a fall while intexicated, having been evercome by alcohol in medicine. She held the undivided attention of her sudience during the whole hour of her address. After her address the society preceded to their usual business. It is understood that this organization is soon to enlarge its field of operation. Miss Millard, the President of the National Union, is to visit this city in January.

The hall was well filled last night at the regular meeting of the Reform Club. The exercises were introduced with music and singing. Rev. W. K. Boyle led in prayer. The executive committee reported nine additions to the membership. Measures were taken for especial work during the holidays. Various reports were re-Several short addresses were also delivered. HERISTMAS BALLAD AT BRENGLE'S Mary had a little cake, Its ice was white as snow;

'Twas fair to see and sweet to taste, For Brengle makes them so. She took the cake to school one day: It was against the rule:

For children all love Brengle's cakes And take a bite in school, Anl so the teacher took the cake And eat it on the sly; And after school, with solemn face, the told the child a lie.

She said, the mice had eat the cake And thought it very nice: That all of them that tasted it

Had turned to candy mice. The candy mice the windows show And tempt the boys to break, Were just the very little mie; That nibbled Mary's cake.

But Mary was not fooled at all. "Too thin," was all she spake, The teacher quick to Brengle's skipped And bought another cake.

And Brengle has lots of such Cakes on hand for Christmas. His CHRISTMAS CAKES, Black, Fruit, Pound, Jelly and Fancy, Ornamental and Plain, are sold cheaper than they can be manu-factured at home. Also Cream Puffs. Tarts and Pastry, Candies and Taffy of all kinds. Pies a specialty. Fruits, Nuts, Confectioneries, Caromels and Sugared Fruits.
